MRS. W. G. HARVEY DIES

Expires in Baltimore While on Shopping Trip.

Taken suddenly ill in a Baltimore store while on a motor trip to that city with her husband, Mrs. William Graham Harvey, Jr., of 1619 S street Northwest, Washington, died yesterday afternoon before a physician could be summoned. Apoplexy was given as the cause of death .

Mrs. Harvey was the wife of Capt. Harvey, president and treasurer of the Bryant Fertilizer Company of this city, and a retired captain of the old Virginia volunteers. She was a native of Richmond and came here more than ten years ago. She was educated at the Mount Maria Convent, Richmond.

According to Capt. Harvey, she had been ill for some time, but was not believed to be in danger of death. The trip to Baltimore was made yesterday at her suggestion, and her death occurred while Capt. Harvey was transacting business in another part of the city. Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

U-BOATS DESTROYED

Depth Bomb Sinks One; 2 Torpedoes Hit Other.

London, Sept. 27.—The destruction of two submarines by British naval craft is thus described: "The captain of a destroyer saw a German U-boat attack a merchant steamer two miles off. The destroyer went to the assistance of the steamer and the submarine dived.

"When I judged that we were directly over her , I let go a depth charge with a lifebouy to mark the spot,' said the captain. 'Within fifteen seconds of the explosion the submarine came to the surface with a slight list to starboard. Immediately the conning tower showed above the water all our starboard guns opened fire, and the conning tower was riddled.'

"A British submarine accounted for the other German U-boat.

"'I fired both torpedoes almost simultaneously,' said the captain of the British submarine, 'and about half a minute later there was a terrific explosion, a big flame and a fountain of water a hundred feet high. The German submarine totally disappeared. There was a lot of oil about and the smell of paraffin, but no sign of any part of the boat. I heard shouting in the water and picked up one man.'"

IN MEMORIAM

CHESHIRE—In sad but loving memory of my dear father, ANDREW CHESHIRE, who departed this life four years ago today, September 27, 1914.

My heart deep in sorrow returns to the day,
As memory recalls how death bore you away,
And left me in tears, in grief and in woe,
As I stood by your bedside four ago.

By his daughter, Julia H. Mason.

SCHOOLS IN BIG SHIPYARDS

Virginia Shipbuilding Corporation Where 2,000 Men Are Needed, Teaching Skilled Trades.

Demands for skilled labor in shipyards has become so great that schools are conducted in every shipyard of any importance to train unskilled men for technical positions. This policy follows the practice of the United States army, in training privates first to be noncommissioned officers, and later on, as they show capacity, to be commissioned officers.

In the new shipyard schools those in training get paid for the work they do at shipping boards standard wages, according to the kind of work actually done, or time put in while learning the trade.

A school of this character is in operation at the Virginia- Shipbuilding yard, at Alexandria, where able-bodied, willing-to-work men are being taught how to rivet, and are being paid at the same time. A couple of thousand men are needed in the yard in all the structural departments.

INVASION OF BULGARIA

Allies Advance Nearly Forty Miles, Overcoming All German Resistance.

London, Sept. 27.—The invasion of Bulgaria continues with unabated energy and success. The British and Greeks on the allied right are battering their way forward across the steep Belachista Ridge northeast of Doiran Lake, the Greeks at last accounts approaching the crest of the mountains. The British have reached Dzuma Obasi.

The British forces marching on Strumnitza are well across the Bulgarian border. Latest dispatches had them near Kosturino, some six miles south of Strumnitza.

Meanwhile the Serbians on the left of the main attacking front—the Italians are on the extreme left—have made further great strides toward encircling the routed Bulgarian armies. They have entered Istip, marking an advance of nearly forty miles since the capture of Prilep, two days ago.

To the east of the Vardar, too, the Serbians are smashing northward. They have captured the station of Gradsko, overcoming all resistance rendered mainly by German units. Here they took immense supplies.

Kaiser Hid in Cellar.

Geneva, Sept. 27.—The German Kaiser hid in a cellar at Mannheim during a recent raid by the allied airmen over that city, dispatches received here stated. Several bombs struck near the cellar. The German ruler was making a visit to towns along the Rhine to allay fears of their inhabitants, following raids of allied aircraft. An attack was made on Mannheim at the time of the royal visit.

BRIEF AND TO THE POINT

"Here's Your Hat What's Your Hurry?"—Foch to Newspapermen.

London, Sept. 27.—Marshal Foch, commander-in-chief of the Allied armies on the western front, who dislikes interviews and rarely grants one received a few newspaper men at his headquarters on Tuesday. Among those received was the correspondent of the Telegraph, who thus records the Marshal's brief utterances, made in an ejaculatory manner with the use of hardly any verbs:

"The British army is better than ever. It fights better than ever. All of it s losses have been made good and it is a more splendid army than it has been before.

"The Americans are splendid and are wonderfully gallant in the field. Ten thousand fresh Americans arrive in France every day.

"The French army is the same good old army it was in 1914. No more is to be said."

In discussing the general situation the Marshal said:

"The enemy is shaken up and shaken down, but is still holding out. You must not think that we shall get to the Rhine immediately. We have passed over the crest and are now going down hill. If we gather impetus as we go, like a rolling ball, so much the better."

With a few cordial words the Marshal then dismissed his interviewers and resumed his work on his maps.

LIBERTY LOAN BONDS

All in Readiness For Opening of Campaign Tomorrow—Every Indication that Alexandria Will "Go Over the Top"—Citizens' Bank Announces Advance Subscription of $200,000.

The Liberty Loan Campaign opens at noon tomorrow. Practically all is in readiness for the drive, and there is every reason to believe that Alexandria, as it has done in the past three campaigns will "go over the top." Every man, woman and child in Alexandria should purchase one or more Liberty Bonds. There is no excuse for not purchasing a bond. Money is plentiful and even if you cannot pay all down you should arrange to get a bond anyway and also buy as many as you can on the installment plan.

Uncle Sam is going to give you four and one quarter per cent interest on this loan. There is no better investment than Liberty Bonds. Unless you buy a mortage on Uncle Sam the kaiser will have a mortgage on you.

If every man woman and child in the city do their duty in purchasing the bonds Alexandria will "go over the top." long before the close of the campaign.

The various committees in charge of the drive, including men and women, have completed their plans and the campaign will be continued in an aggressive manner until the close, October 19. Members of the committee are anxious that all persons purchase the bonds just as soon as convenient.

The Citizens' National Bank announces an advance subscription in behalf of itself and patrons of $200,000 to the Fourth Liberty Loan Bonds.

On the last, the Third Liberty Loan, this bank secured $181,000. They earnestly request that their friends send their subscription to them in order that they may double their record in the last loan.

GRAND THEATER

The reputation Franklyn Farnum and Brownie Vernon have established as film-fun experts is likely to be abundantly maintained when "The Car of Chance" is displayed in Bluebird photoplay at the Grand Theatre tomorrow.

This feature will be largely light comedy in motive, but there will be shown a number of onlookers, while a pretty romance is woven around the adventures of a jitney bus.

RECANTS CONFESSION

Ben Rubin, Self Proclaimed Slayer of Eva Roy, Now Tells Officers He Did Not Commit the Crime. But Little Credence Given His Story From Start.

Ben Rugin denies killing Eva Roy. For seven days he has baffled District detectives and county authorities by the stubborn manner in which he maintained he was guilty of committing the crime on August 6.

"No, I never killed her," is the statement he made at the scene of the crime when faced by Peter Roy, the father of the girl, "but if you hadn't brought that kindly looking old father here to face me, I could have held out to the end that I was the murderer of little Eva Roy.

"It was just a case of not being able to tell that old man a lie," he continued.

Later on, while on the way back to the Fairfax county jail, he said that remaining in the Lorton reformatory was a living death, and he saw no use in not claiming the guilt of any crime which might put him out of all his earthly troubles.

The denial of his guilt was made after he had been walked all through the dense woodland near Burke Station during a pouring rain. Those present when he declared that he had previously lied about the crime were C. Vernon Ford, Commonwealth attorney; Wilson I. Farr, assistant Commonwealth attorney; Dr. Sweatman, who examined the body of Eva Roy after the murder; Sheriff Allison, and F. D. Richardson, acting counsel for Ben Rubin at the instance of Judge Brent.

The confession of his perjured statement before half a dozen examinations to District detectives was made following several miles of tramping through the woods in his vain effort to point out the place where the crime was committed or where the body of the girl was dragged and tied to a tree.

He picked out big trees and little trees as the ones he had tied the body of Eva Roy to after the murder was committed. He seemed to have no knowledge of where he was or where the authorities were taking him. He claimed to have never seen the Hanse house, which is within less than fifty yards of the scene of the crime. He even brushed against the tree on which the body of Eva Roy was tied, but never recognized it.

He was given several pieces of cloth from which to select the dress Eva Roy had on when murdered. Instead of selecting the gingham, he chose a piece of bed ticking. He also stated that Eva Roy had her hair hanging down over her shoulders whereas her hair was done up on her head when her body was found after the murder.

Finally the party reached the spring where Eva Roy ate her dinner prior to the murder. It is presumed to have taken place about an hour following her presence at the spring. He did not know anything about the spring.

Peter Roy, father of the murdered girl, and Mrs. Jerman, sister of Eva Roy, met the party near the spring.

BULGARS SEEK PEACE

Capital of Nations Reported to be Ready for Revolution—Offers An Armistice.

Geneva, Sept. 27.—The defeat of Bulgarian forces in Macedonia has caused a great sensation in Sofia, dispatches received here today state. The capital of Bulgaria, it is declared, is ready for a revolution.

London, Sept. 27.—Bulgaria has offered an armistice, it was announced here today.

The announcement came in a dispatch from Copenhagen, stating it was officially reported from Germany that Bulgarian Premier Malinoff had proposed an armistice to the entente.

Berlin has learned, the dispatch said, that Malinoff's proposal for an armistice was not supported by the other members of the cabinet of Czar Ferdinand, and caused great dissatisfaction throughout the country.

Strong measures have been taken to support the Bulgarian front, it was stated.

A counter movement against Malinoff's proposal already has been started in Sofia, according to a dispatch from that city, by way of Berlin and Copenhagen.

Malinoff is leader of the anti-war party in Bulgaria and bitterly opposed Bulgaria's entrance into the war before he became head of the government. When he was appointed premier a few months ago, it was freely predicted that he would engineer some move for a separate peace.

STRIKE ON WIDE FRONT

British Launch a New Drive West of the Meuse River

London, Sept. 27. (11:12 a. m.)—Following closely upon the heels of the great American blow against the Germans west of the Meuse river, the British launched a new drive on a wide front south of the Sensee river today, the war office announced .

The Sensee river lies in the region east of Arras, between the Picardy and Flanders battle fronts. General Haig's new blow there is part of the great turning movement against Cambrai.

The war office stated that all reports indicated that unsatisfactory progress was being made. Gains were made by the British elsewhere also.

LAST ACT OF THE DRAMA

Capture or Annihilation of Another Ottoman Army Imminent.

London, Sept. 27.—The last act of the Turkish drama in Palestine is being enacted, and unless a miracle happens the finis will be the capture or annihilation of another Ottoman army, the Fourth, estimated at between 25,000 and 35,000 strong.

If the apparently inevitable comes to pass, 80,000 Turks will have been killed, wounded or made prisoner, and the liberation of Palestine from the misrule of the Crescent will be complete. The total of prisoners taken so far has mounted to 45,000.

The Turkish Fourth army appears hopelessly trapped. A ring has been flung around it by British and Arab horsemen and infantry.

To the east, where the vast Syrian Desert might have served the weary Ottomans as a last avenue of escape, a solid line has been stretched from north to south by Arabs and British waiting for the routed Turks to run into their arms.

BARNETT-FOSTER NUPTIALS

Ceremony at First Baptist Church Last Night.

Miss Edna D. Barnett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Barnett, and Mr. James L. Foster were quietly married at 8 o'clock last night at the First Baptist Church, Rev. Dr. E. B. Jackson, pastor, officiating. The marriage was attended by only the immediate relatives of the couple.

The bride was becomingly gowned in a taupe broadcloth suit with hat to match and carried a bouquet of La France roses and ferns.

Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Foster left for Washington, Atlantic City and other points where they will spend their honeymoon.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Foster are active members of the First Baptist Church.

EVANGELICAL SERVICES

Union evangelical services will be held simultaneously in all of the Protestant Churches in this city beginning Sunday, Oct. 20. The services, according to present plans, will be continued each night for either ten days or two weeks.

Many of the ministers have planned to have assistants here during the progress of the services which will be held in the different churches each night at 8 o'clock.

Plans also are being made for the annual Sunday School parade which will be held Sunday afternoon October 13 under the auspices of the Alexandria Sunday School Association. Scholars from all of the Protestant Sunday Schools will participate.

NEW AMERICAN DRIVE

Average Advance of Seven Miles a Day on Twenty-Mile Front.

An average advance of seven miles on a twenty-mile front by the Americans in their new drive was announced by General Pershing in his official communique received last night.

Paris, Sept. 27.—"Operations are unrolling satisfactorily," says last night war office communique regarding the Franco-American offensive launched yesterday morning.

"The French and American armies," says the statement, "attacked this morning astride the Argonne.

"The French, advancing west of the Argonne, attained certain points many kilometers from their line of departure.

"The battle continues."

Paris, Sept. 27.—Pershing's boys are once more "on the go."

The departing sun, catching a few last glimpses of the French and American armies smashing forward in a powerful and far-flung drive launched at dawn yesterday in the "dusty Champagne" and between the Argonne forest and the Cotes de Lorraine, saw the Americans seven miles ahead of their line of departure on a front of twenty miles.

Five thousand prisoners had been taken up to dusk.

"Operations are unrolling satisfactorily," the war office announced last night. "The French, advancing west of the Argonne, attained certain points many kilometers from their starting line"

"Unrolling" is English for the picturesque French term "derouler." It's used by the prosaic communique writer only when things are going extremely well.

"The battle continues," the statement adds.

This means that the enemy, who drew back as soon as the offensive started, perhaps even while the bombardment was till going on, has halted in his "battle positions" and that there one of the greatest combats of the war is now in progress.

RESULTS OF OFFENSIVE

Professor Pupin Makes Predictions of Outcome of Drive.

New York, Sept. 27.—Four main results from the great offensive against Bulgaria and Austria were predicted yesterday by Prof. M. I. Pupin, of Columbia University, Serbian consul-general and a recognized authority on Balkan political conditions and probabilities.

1. Iternecine devastation and strife merging into anarchy within Bulgaria which, he believes should be left for a while "to stew in its own juice."

2. Great expansion of Serbia as a national union, to include the territory in which dwell several millions of Serbian peoples virtually held in feudal bondage by German-Austria.

3. Disintegration and collapse of what is known as the Austrian Empire.

4. A flanking drive to the Black Sea, thereby cutting off and compelling surrender of Constantinople with utter defeat of the Turkish-Bulgarian-German armies in Asia Minor.

The war will be won next year by sweeping victories of the allies, Prof. Pupin says. It will all be over before a second Christmas comes, and peace will be dictated in Berlin he believes.

WOMEN IN BOND DRIVE

Plans Mapped Out For Sale of Liberty Bonds—Intensive Campaign to be Conducted—Interesting Addresses Delivered—Miss Mary Lindsey Chairman of Women's Committee.

An enthusiastic meeting in the interest of the coming campaign for sale of Liberty Bonds was held by the women of the city last night in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce.

Interesting addresses were made by Capt. Emerson, Lieut. Dillon, Julian Y. Williams and S. W. Pitts ,the last named taking the place of Leo P. Harlow, who was unable to be present owing to indisposition, and Miss Mary Lindsey, chairman' of the womens committee who presided.

Each woman who attended the meeting was furnished with pledge cards and each woman will either head an organization for the sale of the bonds or likewise assist in the work, and each also will appoint her own committees. They are expected to turn in their cards for the sale daily to the Chamber of Commerce.

In view of the fact that a greater part of the work for the sale of the bonds will fall on the women owing to the large number of men being drafted the women during the progress of this campaign have planned to be more aggressive than ever in pushing the sale of the bonds.

Particular stress was laid on the fact that both women and men who are employed in Washington should purchase their bonds in this city in order that Alexandria may get credit for such sales. They can do this and show their employer that they have purchased the bonds which will, of course, have the same effect. The women make this as a patriotic appeal for the city and believe that all persons who are employed in Washington on this occasion will purchase their bonds here in order to help Alexandria "go over the top."

Dodgers asking all Alexandrians employed in Washington to comply with this request will be distributed on the cars.

A War Savings Stamp will be given to the organization selling the largest amount of bonds and a stamp also will be given to the individual disposing of the largest amount of bonds.

From tomorrow until the close of the sale October 19 the campaign will be an intensive one.

The women announce that any organization that may have been inadvertantly omitted in arranging for participation in the sale join them in this laudable work.

WANT OLD CLOTHING

Appeal by Red Cross For War Sufferers.

The women of the Red Cross of this city in charge of receiving clothing for the French and Belgium sufferers of the war urge all persons having discarded clothing to send it at once to their headquarters at 612 King street. Already a goodly number of citizens have responded to this worthy appeal. However, the committee in charge is anxious to receive more and everyone who has such will confer a favor on the women in charge and also be doing an act of charity by sending it to the Red Cross.

The kind of articles needed have heertofore been published in the Gazette. After Monday the campaign for the receipt of such articles will end and the headquarters will be closed.

RUSSIA'S REIGN OF TERROR

The State Department yesterday was in receipt of information from Russia which pales into insignificance the dreadful chronicles of the French revolution.

Mass murder is the order of the day in both Petrograd nad Moscow. Thousands of persons have been shot, other thousands are dying of starvation in prisons, women are being attacked and outraged, and neither city offers a single place of refuge.

The latest report, dated September 15, shows that on that day the most violent elements of the Bolshevik were in control in Petrograd. A reign of terror had been instituted by them and their acts of frightfulness were such as to cow the entire population. The entire city, the report said, was like a vast graveyard, not only because of the bodies of the dead, but also because of the awful stillness that followed in the wake of the murders.

PATHETIC SCENES

During the past few days persons passing the corner of Prince and St. Asaph steets have noticed baby carriages lined up in front of the postoffice building. Had they ascended to the second story of the structure they would have seen a number of young mothers with crowing infants in their arms. The latter, sometimes gleeful, at other periods fretful, contrasted with the anxious expressions of the young matrons. The husbands of the women are within the draft age; they had registered and received their questionnaries. Their wives had come with them and were experiencing the first anxiety caused by war. It is possible that many young husbands will ere long be called upon to pass the ordeal of kissing baby and taking leaves of ones they have vowed to love and respect throughout life. Their weaker vessels, like all good wives, appear with many of them in the federal building and share their anxieties.

The shadow of war is especially distressing to those depending upon the brain and brawn of the other gender. The latter are up against it. Their country has the greatest claim; hence they respond with true patriotism, and Alexandrians who have received questionnairies make no hesitation in responding to call to arms. The faithful wives are equally patriotic, and accompany their husbands to the draft board.

The fate of the man who has brought all this trouble upon the world is still in the future. But what has been done before is likely to be done again. During the last days of the Jewish theocracy, when Nebuchadnezzar had invaded Judea, we read:

"And the Lord sent against him (Jehoviaskim) bands of the Chaldees, and bands of the Syrians, and bands of the Moabites, and bands of the children of Ammon, and sent them against Judah to destroy it, according to the word of the Lord which he spoke by his servants the prophets. Surely at the commandment of the Lord came this upon Judah, to remove them out of his sight, for the sins of Manassah, according to all that he did. And also for the innocent blood that he shed; for he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood; which the Lord would not pardon."

The last six words are of awful import.

This modern Jehoviakim has shed far more innocent blood and caused more tears from widows and orphans than ever did the Bible character referred to. His horrible shadow can be seen in our own city where as yet he has shed no innocent blood, but where he has overwhelmed many in cruel anxiety and suspense. The just God will doubtless do to him even as He did to Jehoiakim of old.

PATRIOTIC DUTY

Democratic organizations throughout the country generally will observe the policy of the Democratic National Committee and refrain from public political meetings during the Liberty Loan Drive.

This action was advised on August 29 by the national committee in a communication addressed to the chairman of state committees and members of the national committee, in which the view as expressed that political meetings during the period of the Liberty Loan campaign would be manifestly unpatriotic and improper.

The suggestion was made that state committees and district committees refrain from arrangements for meetings of this character during the Loan campaign. The national headquarters has been advised that this suggestion met with the approval of officers of Democratic organizations and that plans had been made in accordance with this suggestion.

In many states the two political organizations have united and propose active work in the Liberty oLan movement, suspending all forms of political activities until their state's quotas have been subscribed.

LETTER FROM FRANCE

In a letter written from Base Hospital No. 34, Nantes, France, dated August 26, by Musician S. B. De Vaughan, this city the writer among other things says: "We are not going to stop until we have the American flag flying over Berlin."

He also says that among the Alexandrians he has met since his arrival overseas were Kenneth Aitcheson, Richard Green and H. Haynes, Musician De Vaughan says if there is any mother in Alexandria that has not heard from her son since his arrival overseas he will write him and try and have him write home.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Frankfort-on-the-Main was successfully bombarded by British raiding planes at noon yesterday, the war office announces. In engagements with German machines which tried to frustrate the raid, seven hostile planes were shot down. The raiders lost five of their own machines.

The Berlin Vorwaerts declares that Chancellor von Hertling has further "widened the gulf between the Socialist and the government" by his speech in the Reichstag.

Your Winter's Coal Supply

On account of rulings of the U. S. Fuel Administration, it seems doubtful if Virginia will receive sufficient anthracite coal to supply the demands. If present rulings are maintained, this shortage will be very great in Alexandria and we earnestly advise our customers to put in a reasonable amount of bituminous coal as a safeguard against a coal shortage next winter.

We are now securing some very fine bituminous coal which we believe will work in all characters of coal burners but the Iatrobe stoves.

HUN TRACTS

Fulsome Pamphlet Urges Dons to Attack Gibraltar.

Here is a sample of the German propaganda pamphlets in the Spanish language which are now being circulated throughout Spain:

"Away yonder in Berlin there lives a powerful friend, who never ceases regarding Spain with an infinite tenderness and love; that love is as constant as his hatred of his own and of Spain's enemies, England and France is implacable.

"This grand seigneur, omnipotent Wilhelm II., is pursuing objects in this war which are entirely in the interests of the highest good of all humanity. Moreover, according to the assurances of all who have had the signal honor of approaching him, he ardently aspires to the early restoration of Gibraltar and Tangier to Spain.

"Is it possible that the Spaniards can remain indifferent to such altruism, to such nobility of aims? Spaniards should no longer hesitate They ought to march to the assault on Gibraltar, while Raisulis penetrate into the French zone in Morocco.

"If Spaniards fail to take advantage of the present moment to recapture the Rock of Gibraltar the world will say that they are a people without backbone and without shame."

APPEALS LIQUOR CASES.

U. S. Asks the Supreme Court to Set Aside Decisions of Lower Tribunals.

Two appeals from Federal court decisions nullifying in part the Reed Amendment prohibiting interstate shipment of intoxicating liquors into dry States for beverage purposes were filed Wednesday in the Supreme Court by the government. The court was asked to expedite consideration of the cases.

In one case, the lower court held that the act does not prohibit transportation of liquor through a dry State. In the other the court held that while the liquor was "transported into a dry State from another State, it was not transported in interstate commerce because intended for personal use."

The government contends that the movement of liquor from any State to another except for purposes defined in the law, is a violation of the law.
